8. Mare Owner is responsible for all shipping fees. Shipping fees are not included in the breeding fee or collection fee. Stallion Owner is not responsible for delays in shipment delivery or loss of shipment or damage to shipping container or semen. Shipping fees will be paid directly to Stallion Owner's vet on the day of collection.

10. Please keep us updated with the progress of your mare in her cycle. This is greatly appreciated and makes our life much simpler. (Shoot me a text or leave a message- 985-415-4742. You're not bothering me, I promise!)
11. Regular breeding season is February 1st, 2022 through August 15, 2022. We will do exceptions to these dates, however, all exceptions to these dates must be in writing and signed by both parties.

The Mare Owner releases Stallion Owner from any liability for any and all associated damages.
13. Live Foal Guarantee (LFG): A live foal is defined as one that stands and nurses without assistance. Should the foal not stand and nurse, the mare owner agrees to notify the stallion owner in writing within one week of the foaling date and furnish a written statement from a licensed veterinarian. The mare owner will be entitled to return the same mare for one rebreed provided the stallion is still standing at stud.

14. If the stallion dies or becomes unfit prior to covering mare (live cover breeding) or the shipment of semen (AI breeding) then this contract shall become null and void and the stud fee, less all other fees, will be refunded.

For non-purebred Connemara mares, half-bred certificates will be issued by the ACPS (any and all registration fees are due by mare owner).
16. Mare owner understands that stallion is a competition animal and will be unavailable on certain days. However, if you keep us informed of your mare's progress, we will strive to do whatever is necessary to have a collection made, even on a show day, if it is at all feasible to accomplish.

This contract is non-transferable without written permission of the stallion owner. This contract is governed under the laws of the state of Louisiana. This contract represents the entire agreement between stallion owner and mare owner.
